In addition to promoting your books assiduously on-line, there are several different methods that may show you how to sell more books.

One is to give something away without spending a dime with your book, resembling a invaluable bonus item. Or bundle a number of ebooks below one price, which lowers the worth for each book in the event that they were bought separately.

An efficient approach for figuring out a value is to send out a survey to your current customers. If these prospects have already purchased an book from you, ask for their opinion in terms of price. Do that by making a sales page for the new guide, but do not include a worth on that page. As an alternative, add a lot of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another technique is to test out costs by creating a number of duplicate gross sales pages with completely different prices on each page. Make sure your gross sales copy is exactly the identical on each web page, and consists of your promoting-handle sentence. Then work out for every page the conversion ratio between guests to your web site and sales of your book. This may inform you what your optimum value is.

Ultimately, if you happen to've written a book that solves a drawback or presents a new approach, your e book will bring in both site visitors and profits. So you should definitely write that selling-handle sentence that sums up what problem your e book solves and what the advantages of your 282 book might be to the customers who purchase it.
